

NEWS FROM PEACEHAVEN

August 2020

GENERAL MEETINGS RESUMED

The first general meeting of the Friends since the COVID-19 lockdown took place on 8 July. The meeting was well attended and, thanks to our spacious nursery shed, physical distancing presented no problem.

SUNDAY TRADING

Our inaugural day for Sunday trading at the nursery was 12 July. It was a wet, cold day, but we still managed to make some useful sales. Sadly the coffee van that was in attendance didn't have many takers other than nursery volunteers.

Since then we've had two sunny Sundays as well as another grey one, and have done some good trade.

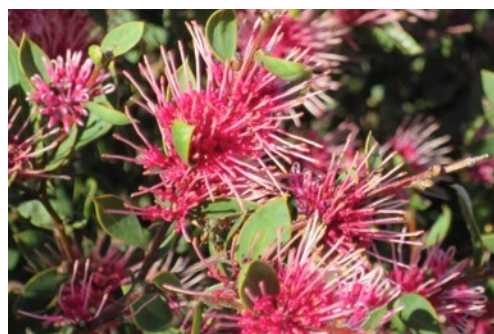

Many of the Sunday customers have been new ones – visitors to the park who noticed that the nursery was open and came in to look around, departing afterwards with a box of plants.

AROUND THE GARDEN

One of the many joys of a native garden is that lots of the plants bloom in winter. But there are also signs now that spring is just around the corner.

Grevillea Billy Wings

Hakea Burrendong Beauty

Thryptomene saxicola

Hardenbergia violacea

MUSIC IN THE PARK

The Music in the Park spring series will begin on Sunday 13 September at 1 pm, with entertainment provided by Brisbane-based band Bubblefry. The band's repertoire includes pop, rock, funk and soul – from Frank Sinatra to Bruno Mars and everything in between.

COVID-19 requirements will apply, including collection of contact details and physical distancing.

Bubblefry

NEXT MEETING OF FRIENDS

The next general meeting of the Friends of Peacehaven will be on Wednesday 12 August.

Time: after the management committee meeting, which will begin at 9.30 am.

Place: nursery shed, Peacehaven

RSVP: peacehaven3@gmail.com

All welcome, but please stay at home if you feel unwell, and be sure to observe strict hygiene and physical distancing measures.